

LEON —

StH, 2002

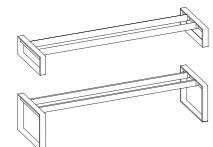

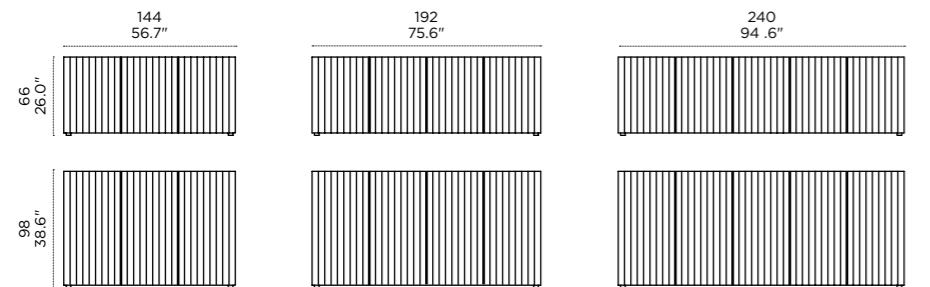

Leon plays with an awe-provoking optical effect that underlies its salient feature, that is, a standpoint-dependent visualization. From the front, the doors appear marked by vertical multi-coloured stripes yet, when observed from the side, dark or light uniformity prevails. Even the unique lacquered white finish produces the same effects through room lighting.

LEON —

Leon gioca con un suggestivo effetto ottico che determina la sua caratteristica saliente: apparire diverso a seconda del punto di osservazione. Frontalmente le ante sono scandite da un motivo a righe verticali policrome ma, osservandole lateralmente, prevale l'omogeneità chiara o scura. Anche la versione in finitura unica, laccata bianca, funziona grazie al gioco d'ombre che si crea con la luce d'ambiente.

LEON —

Leon joue avec un effet optique fascinant qui en détermine sa caractéristique dominante: apparaître différemment selon le point de vue. De face, les portes sont rythmées par le motif des lignes verticales polychromes mais, en les observant de côté, c'est l'homogénéité claire ou sombre qui domine. Même la version simple de finition unique, laquée en blanc, fonctionne grâce au jeu d'ombres défini par la lumière ambiante.
